

ONO to release “Give Peace A Chance 2004” as part of star-studded CD, WakeUp Everybody; released September 21 in an effort to empower youth to vote.

(New York, August 10, 2004) Kenny “Babyface” Edmonds, Tracey Edmonds, Russell Simmons and Jonathan Lewis announced today that the star-studded recording of the 1960’s hit “Wake Up Everybody” would be released on August 16, 2004. The “Wake Up Everybody” track features a wide variety of today’s hottest hip-hop, R&B and rap stars. Among the standout performances are Missy Elliot, Jamie Foxx, Jadakiss, Fabolous, Jaheim, Faith Evans, Claudette Ortiz (City High) and Nate Dogg.

The full CD features tracks including “Give Peace A Chance 2004” by ONO, “Talkin’ Bout A Revolution” by Ben Jelen, “Why? What’s Goin’ On?” by the Roots, “Stop The Fighting,” by Ellie Lawson, “Hell To Pay,” by Bonnie Raitt, “Freedom,” by Jurassic 5 and “Change The World” by Babyface and Eric Clapton, and will be available in stores throughout the country on September 21.

All proceeds from Wake Up Everybody will benefit America Coming Together (ACT). ACT is America Coming Together (ACT) who is working to register and mobilize voters to support progressive candidates at all levels of government. ACT is building the largest voter mobilization effort in history.
